Sean Edelstein
Prudential Business Sales

Sean,

I wanted to drop you a quick note of thanks for doing such a professional job with regard to the sale of my tanning salon. Your understanding of both the business and my needs was exceptional. Further, I thank you for your timeliness and follow through in concluding our transaction. Obviously, your experience paid dividends for me when it came to setting an asking price, and it was definitely on the mark.

As you know, the salon was merely a side business for me. In my twenty-two years as a professional firefighter (and as president of the Fullerton Firefighter's Association), I have placed a great value on personal integrity. I truly thank you for showing the same type of integrity that I have come to expect in public safety. You clearly had several opportunities to make things easier on yourself, yet you chose to represent my interest with vigor and candor.

Again, thank you for all of your effort. You made me feel as though we made a "good team", and I look forward to meeting again.

Sincerely,

Chris Harris
