

Did You Know It's Impossible To Sneeze With Your Eyes Open?

July 2, 2007

Yes it's true – try it yourself. There's no way you can sneeze and keep your eyes open. That little piece of trivia is just one of the many interesting and enlightening tidbits waiting for you in my latest Service You Deserve![®] Free consumer newsletter. But before you dig into this issue, I thought you'd like to know...

Here's what's new in the world of real estate: Existing home sales fell 0.3% in May to 5.99 million units, the slowest sales pace in four years, the National Association of Realtors said June 25. down 2.1% from a year earlier, marking the 10th straight month that the price has shown a year-over-year decline.

And a update on my daughter who was asked by the Southern California Seahorses Soccer Organization (www.seahorsesoccer.com) to go to Japan for 3 weeks. They are providing outreaches to local, select, and university women's teams as well as clinics for local elementary schools. They attended there first sento (I'll have to find out more about that).

Finally, I want you to know, that you may call me for any reason. And please let me know if a friend, family member or neighbor needs a caring, competent real estate professional to help in buying or selling.

I truly appreciate your friendship and referrals. Enjoy your issue!

Warmest regards,

David Krecker
Centuryside Real Estate Inc.

P.S. I also included 7 easy and inexpensive ways to protect your family from potentially deadly household injuries. Friends tell me the tips really gave them peace of mind around the home. I hope they help you too!