

John,

I just arrived back in my office last night to find the very impressive binder you created for us.

We both really enjoyed our time with you last Sunday and felt very good about your approach and style. We met six different Real Estate "professionals" that day but you put them all to shame. In fact, with you as a benchmark, all the others fail to qualify as professional at all!

Thanks for the great follow-up.

Thanks again.

Regards,

Al Hydeman
