

To Whom It May Concern:

This letter of introduction is to assure anyone considering listing their home with John Caliendo that they could not have a better person for the job. He was extremely professional at all times when dealing with not only the sale of our house but, respected all of our personal issues while doing so.

During the sale of our home several months ago. He displayed a sincere understanding of the "Fish Bowl" effect, as well as taking care to treat us as individuals, as my husband and I were going through personal transition at the same time.

As a women I was more than grateful for his respectful attitude and sensitivity regarding this very stressful period in my life. He dealt with me with the same intelligent regard as he would a man.

Not leaving unsaid his honesty and integrity when dealing with all concerned. He is readily available and directly to the point when answering any of your concerns.

I would be completely at ease recommending his services to anyone and would be pleased to take a moment to do so over the phone if need be. You may ask John for my number at that time.

Sincerely,
