

Dan Sampson and his staff at Paramount Funding were the most professional mortgage lending firm we have had the pleasure to deal with. We told Dan exactly what we were wanting to do and he made it happen in a very short period of time. We were most impressed with the communication via phone and email letting us know where we were at relative final funding. The whole loan process was very easy, not to mention Dan was able to get us the best interest rate. Many other lending firms we called gave us a complete run around wasting valuable time. Not with Paramount. We highly recommend Dan and his team.
